OFFICE OF THE PUBLICITY OFFICER TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE, PUBLIC OFFICES.

Bangalore, dated 16th January 1946.

PRESS NOTE.

High Denomination Bank Notes (Demonetization) Ordinance.

The Government of India having issued an Ordinance entitled "High Denomination Bank Notes (Demonetization) Ordinance", high denomination notes have, under the Mysore Paper Currency Act, V of 1919, as amended by Act I of 1939, ceased to be legal tender in Mysore State also from the date of the Ordinance, namely, the 12th January 1946.

High denomination notes have been defined in the Ordinance as bank notes of the value of Rs. 500 and above. These notes have ceased to be legal tender from the 12th January 1946 and their receipt or exchange is prohibited except as provided in the Ordinance. According to the Ordinance, exchange of high denomination notes held by Banks and Treasuries will be limited to the total value declared under Section 4 of the Bank Notes (Declaration of Holdings) Ordinance and every application for exchange should be accompanied by a copy of declaration returned to a Bank or a Treasury by the Receiving Officer under that Ordinance. Scheduled Banks and Treasuries will effect exchange with the Reserve Bank and Non-Scheduled Banks with the Reserve Bank or Scheduled Banks as convenient. Individuals in possession of high denomination notes must fill in the declaration form prescribed by the Ordinance when tendering the notes for exchange, which must be done within ten days. Banks and Treasuries are not permitted to exchange high denomination notes from the public till they are satisfied that the requirements imposed by the Ordinance have been duly complied with. Every declaration must be attested in token of identity by the declarant's Banker or a Magistrate or a Police Officer of rank not below an Inspector of Police. All applications for exchange of high denomination notes aggregating Rs. 10 lakhs and above from private parties are to be referred to the Reserve Bank, Bombay, Calcutta or Madras.

In order to discourage benami ownership, the Ordinance provides that the person who signs any declaration shall be deemed to be the owner of the notes for all purposes. Where the declaration appears to be incomplete in its particulars, a Bank or a Treasury is prohibited from making any payment or exchange.

The penalty for false declaration or other contravention of the Ordinance is imprisonment upto three years or fine or both.

A separate Notification will be issued by the Mysore Government in regard to the procedure to be adopted for exchanging high denomination notes in possession of private holders within the State.

The abovementioned Ordinance does not affect the acceptance and exchange of Rs. 100 notes and below.

C. NANJARAJIENGAR,
Publicity Officer to Government.
